Shiurim for Matzah and Maror (from ספר מאזוני צדק)

It is difficult, if not impossible, to set an exact shiur for matzah and maror. Roughly the shiurim usually followed are as follows:

Matzah

For Motzei Matzah: between $\frac{1}{4}$ and $\frac{1}{2}$ of a hand matzah (all these shiurim include the 2 kizaysim).

For Korech: $\frac{1}{4}$ of a hand matzah.

For Afikomen: between $\frac{1}{4}$ and $\frac{1}{2}$ of a hand matzah (closer to $\frac{1}{4}$).

Maror:

For Maror and Korech: 8" x 10" of a Romaine lettuce leaf.

For those who have a scale:

For Matzah

[If you have no scale, you can estimate based upon the Pupa matzos that were baked with the shul. These are, on average 54 g (1.915 oz.) per matzah.]

For Motzei Matzah:

Lechatchilah, 26.1 gram of a hand matzah. 48.33% of a whole matzah

L'chumra (if one wishes to be yotzei all shitos, in addition to the fact that a few matzos may be a bit less than 54g), 29 g. of a hand matzah. 53.7% of a whole matzah.

L'kulah (for someone who has difficulty eating matzah), 16.7 g. 31.92% of a whole matzah.

For Korech:

Lechatchilah 11.2 g. matzah. 20.74% of a whole matzah

L'chumra, 16.7 g. of a hand matzah. 31.92% of a whole matzah

For Afikomen:

Lechatchilah, 21.9 g. 40.56% of a whole matzah

Lekulah, 15.8 g. 29.26% of a whole matzah

For Maror:

28.8 g. of Romaine lettuce leaf (for a very leafy leaf, i.e., less stalk) 26 g.

For Korech:

19.3 g. of Romaine lettuce leaf
